

Marjorie Duckworth Endowment Award

The Marjorie Duckworth Endowment Award supports creative and innovative cross-disciplinary student projects. One award of $500 will be given to support a student who is either seeking a degree in the School of Arts, Technology and Emerging Communication (ATEC) or a UT Dallas student who is participating in ATEC-related activities during the 2022-2023 academic year. Award recipients are selected by the ATEC Scholarship Selection Committee.

The award was created to support students who assemble group members from multiple disciplines to jointly develop strategies or solutions to problems. Requests could include conference registration fees, supplies, research support or student enrichment activities. Awards are not limited to these examples. A minimum of two group members are required to receive the award.

Completed applications are due no later than April 15, 2022 at 11:59 PM Central Standard Time to ATECScholarships@utdallas.edu

DISCLAIMER AND SIGNATURE

I understand that providing false or misleading information on this application or other documentation may disqualify me from consideration of my application or disbursement of scholarship funding. I agree to release my records to the scholarship's administrators, including name, major, mailing address, e-mail, and GPA. I understand this authorization is valid one time for the single release of information as allowable per the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). If selected, additional information/project content will be required for use by ATEC and UT Dallas media.

I understand that the addition of outside funding toward educational expenses such as other scholarships, grants, tuition adjustments due to exemptions or waivers, and changes in enrollment may result in a reduction of any award received.
